The True Hunting Experience: The Botswana Way!

About Botswana

Botswana is a beautiful country, in Southern Africa, bordering from the North; Zambia and the Caprivi Strip in Namibia, the South; South Africa to the East Zimbabwe and to the West Namibia. It is considered to be the safest and most stable African country.

Hunting Botswana

Botswana is the perfect country to hunt for Southern African species. Hunting is pleasant and a true hunting experience, the way it used to be! You will find that hunting with us is addictive!

Hunting Season

The hunting season in Botswana is during the winter months, between March and September. The weather during the season is pleasantly warm days, with cool evenings. There is normally no rainfall during the hunting season.

Hunting Area

Koch Safaris are the sole concession holders of a 100 000 ha privately owned registered game ranch. This vast area with abundant game allows you to experience a true hunting experience. The Game Ranch is situated in the South Eastern part of Botswana, bordering the Limpopo River which is the border between South Africa and Botswana, in an area known as the Tuli Block. The total 100 00 ha borders the Limpopo River. The ranch is a comfortable 2 ½ hours drive from Gaborone the capital city of Botswana and 5½ hours from Oliver Thambo International Airport in South Africa. The closest border of entry from South Africa to Botswana is Parrs Halt/Stockpoort Border post. Please see the location below:
